

Scrum Fundamentals Training

COURSE CURRICULUM & LEARNING GUIDE

Build practical Scrum knowledge through the modules below. This is a generic training outline; attendance does not itself award a named certification. Confirm any optional assessment route before enrolment.

Module 1: Introduction

Explore introduction through practical explanations and a course-relevant example.

Topics Covered

- Feedback and complex work
- Agile values and principles
- Scrum purpose
- Empirical learning

Learning Outcome: Explain introduction and use the covered concepts to reason about a practical scenario.

Module 2: Scrum Team

Explore scrum team through practical explanations and a course-relevant example.

Topics Covered

- Product Owner
- Scrum Master
- Developers
- Cross-functionality and self-management

Learning Outcome: Explain scrum team and use the covered concepts to reason about a practical scenario.

Module 3: Scrum events

Explore scrum events through practical explanations and a course-relevant example.

Topics Covered

- Sprint and Sprint Planning
- Daily Scrum
- Sprint Review
- Sprint Retrospective

Learning Outcome: Explain scrum events and use the covered concepts to reason about a practical scenario.

Module 4: Artifacts and commitments

Explore artifacts and commitments through practical explanations and a course-relevant example.

Topics Covered

- Product Backlog and Product Goal
- Sprint Backlog and Sprint Goal
- Increment
- Definition of Done

Learning Outcome: Explain artifacts and commitments and use the covered concepts to reason about a practical scenario.

Module 5: Practical foundations

Explore practical foundations through practical explanations and a course-relevant example.

Topics Covered

- Scrum values
- Original scenarios
- Common misconceptions
- Further learning and optional assessment routes

Learning Outcome: Explain practical foundations and use the covered concepts to reason about a practical scenario.

Plan Your Learning

Discuss your experience and goals with our team. Confirm prerequisites, training format, materials, dates, fees and examination inclusion before booking. Course attendance is distinct from earning a certification. This guide is The AgileNow curriculum; it is not an official awarding-body syllabus.

Official reference: <https://scrumguides.org/scrum-guide.html>

All enquiries and training: alen@theagilenow.com

WhatsApp: +91 79895 54686

Website: www.theagilenow.com